

Glasgow Sharks

CLUB CODE OF CONDUCT

All personnel of The Glasgow Sharks Australian Rules Football Club are expected to conform to the club's Equity Policy and ethical standards in all areas including humanity, relationships, commitment, co-operation, integrity, advertising, confidentiality, abuse of privilege and personal standards.

ALL PERSONNEL REPRESENTING THE CLUB MUST:

- Place the wellbeing and safety of all members above all considerations, including developing performance
- Comply with the laws of the game and the rules of any competition in which they participate
- Operate without discrimination on the grounds of age, gender, marital status, sexuality, employment status, social class, colour, race, ethnic or national origin, religious belief or disability
- Respect the basic human rights, dignity and worth of each individual
- Provide a balance between the development of performance and social, emotional, intellectual and physical needs of any individual at the club
- Encourage performers to obey the spirit of the rules and fair play, on and off the sports arena, at all times observe and respect the authority and decisions of all officials and umpires
- Ensure that all activities, training and competition programmes are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of the individual performer
- Participate for their own enjoyment and to improve their skills
- Treat opponents with due respect, both in victory and defeat
- Treat all personal information regarding club members as confidential, In exceptional circumstances I.e. health & safety, legal or medical requirements, disciplinary action or to protect children and vulnerable adults from abuse this must be waived
- Consistently display high personal standards and project an image of health and cleanliness
- Not drink alcohol or smoke either during or before supervising or coaching performers
- Seek ways of increasing personal and professional development
- Report issues or problems they may be experiencing at the club to club officials to discuss and plan a way to resolve or move forward from these issues.
- Abide by the Club's policies and procedures

As a member of the club, I agree to abide by the Club Code of Conduct at all times. Should I disagree with any of this document I will bring this to the attention to the management committee.